JOIN US! We're taking off with Reproductive Freedom Walking Tours in NYC, now part of Social Justice Tours!

We begin on May 12 (yes, that's Mother's Day); with more dates in May and June on the calendar...

We're Exploring Reproductive Freedom in Lower Manhattan

In Reproductive Freedom Walking Tours, we walk and talk about the path to reproductive freedom. Touring through historic lower Manhattan, we explore people and places that have been instrumental in the fight for reproductive health, rights and justice, and the adversaries they've encountered along the way.

Going through Tribeca, Soho and Greenwich Village, we're connecting the past to the present -- through the post Civil War area to the 1970s and the implications in our lives today. (More tour specifics here or here.)

Some Background

Several years ago, Words of Choice theater conducted the first Reproductive Justice Walking Tour to show how our past and our future are intertwined with reproductive rights and social justice. Now, we've joined with Social Justice Tours to offer the Reproductive Freedom Walking Tour. Cindy Cooper, an award-winning writer on Reproductive Freedom, guides the tours.

Social Justice Tours uses tours as a medium to dig beneath the surface of what people regularly see and to engage in critical dialogue. Founder Dan Kaminsky aims "to spread information, expose injustice and highlight inequality ... to encourage thought and inspire action."

Join us as we walk and talk about Reproductive Freedom.
